GSSFJ is inviting papers for Vol. 2, Issue.1, which is scheduled to be published on SEPTEMBER 30, 2019, concerning the following topic.

Population ageing and active ageing: a social and health emergency or an opportunity for development?

Increased life expectancy is a global phenomenon. Advanced developing countries are already facing a reversal in the ratio of young to old and are experimenting with different approaches to contain and address the effects of ageing populations. Is active ageing just a palliative or can it be the engine of a different society, in terms of age and needs, than in the last century?
